We've planted a tree for you!

Order #39182

Hi Russell,

We hope all is well and thank you again for your order! (Order #39182). While you wait, we wanted to let you know that by purchasing from Olson and Baker, we have planted a tree for you! In partnership with More:Trees, we plant a tree on your behalf for every order placed with us. With this partnership, Olson and Baker now aid in impactful climate action whilst also helping struggling local economies – helping secure the future of our planet, now and for generations to come!

Learn about the the current Projects and Benefits...

Madagascar

Partnering with local communities to reforest one of the world's top biodiversity conservation priorities

Kenya

Working with partners to plant forests that channel water, supporting communities and wildlife.

Haiti

Helping local farmers plant trees that protect watersheds and improve food security and supply

Tree Planting

Your tree will be planted and cared for in one of our partner's forests across the world

Carbon Sequestration

Each tree planted sequesters an estimated 0.3 tonnes of CO2 - helping the planet for generations to come.

Community Building

Trees provide farmers and villagers with a skill and wage to feed and house their families, reducing extreme poverty.

Wildlife Restoration

Trees also help reverse the effects of deforestation for animals, wildlife and the planet.

THG (more:trees)

Small change. Big impact.

Creating a greener future, together.

Just One tree sequesters an estimated 0.3 tons of CO2 over its growth life. To put that into perspective, in 2019, vans registered in the EU, Iceland, Norway and the UK emitted on average 158.4 grams of CO2 per kilometre. Olson and Baker customers can be safe in the knowledge that they are making a positive change to the industry when shopping with us - offsetting the impact from transportation and manufacturing!
